

“Imagine Me” Scores Success For Teens

The group “Teens With A Purpose” (TWP) held its 3rd annual Fundraiser and Gala last Friday night at the Westin in Virginia Beach. Al Roker of NBC-TV “Today Show” was the scheduled keynote guest speaker but was unable to attend due to an emergency. Roker serves on the board of directors for the local teen action group. The event was highlighted by artistic expressions by members of the group based in Norfolk. Greetings and remarks came from a number of sponsors and supporters, including Norfolk’s City Manager Marcus Jones and the Chair of the city’s School Board, Dr. Kirk Houston, senior pastor of the Gethsemane Community Fellowship Church in Norfolk. Nicole Livas, anchor WAVY-TV 10, served as Mistress of Ceremonies. The group was founded and is headed by Deirdre A. Love. The presenting sponsor was GEICO, represented by Matt Mitchell. All photos by Harry Jones

(Center) CEO Deidre Love and city manager Maurice Jones

Keepin' It Real on the dance floor.

Awards Luncheon Kicks Off 100th Anniversary Celebration of Girl Scouts

NORFOLK

On November 19, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., Girl Scout Council of Colonial Coast will honor outstanding Girl Scout Famous Formers during a luncheon at the Norfolk Yacht and Country Club in Norfolk. The Famous tickets or calendar. You may also call (757) 410-1475 to make reservations for the lunch. This event serves as the local kick off of the Girl Scout 100th anniversary celebrations.

Among the famous former honorees are

Meyera Oberndorff; and Captain Mary Jackson, the first female commanding officer of the Norfolk Naval Air Station. Visit www.gsccc.org for the names of all thirteen honorees.

Keynote speaker for the event is Molly Metzger

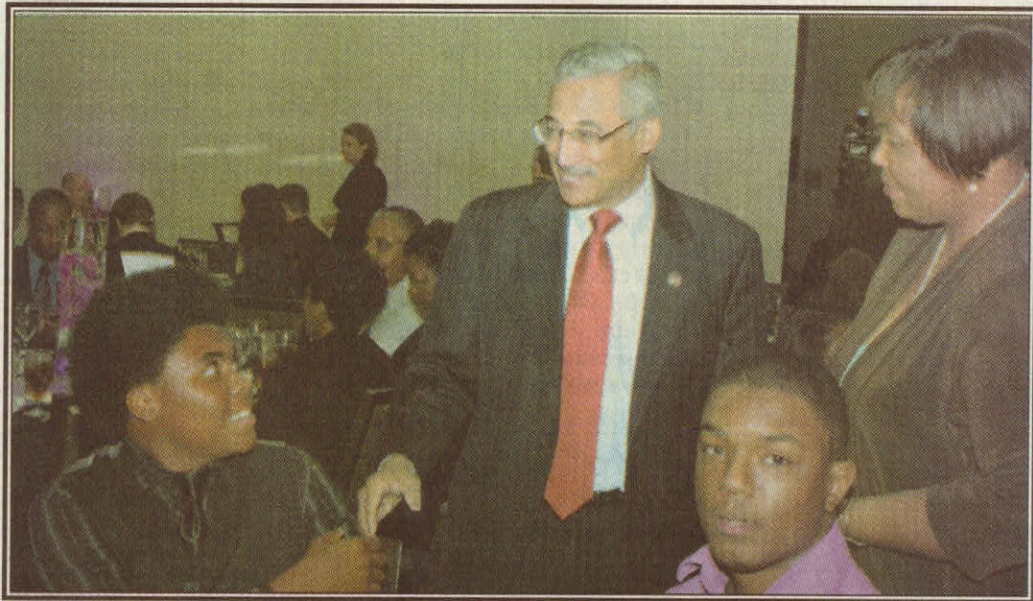

COMMUNITY

ts with her guests that included
es and MC Nicole Livas.

Deidre Love and her son read script.

(Center) U.S. Representative Bobby Scott shares moment with teen members of TWP.

Showcase
Your Business

INEXPENSIVE SMALL

Serving Tidewater With Distinction and Dignity™

Hale
Funeral Home, Inc.

Howard Hale Thornton
President

Christopher J. Wilson
Managing Director

